

San Bernardino County Women's Network

May 2009 West End Meeting

Leading Multiple Generations

Presented by Gina Neigel, Staff Development Officer

Individuals from four different generations are working in the same place at the same time. They have different values, different ideas, different ways of getting things done, and different ways of communicating. While this diversity presents many opportunities for creativity and learning, it has the potential to create friction, uncertainty and frustration as expectations are not met, styles collide, perspectives are not respected, and talents are not appreciated.

Gina Neigel is the Staff Development Officer for the San Bernardino Superior Court.
